

Part 2 - Answer the following questions on a separate Sheet of paper

- 1. Identify the type, make and model of your camera.
- 2. Identify the size of film your camera uses. (The width of the film in mm)
- 3. Look through the viewfinder. How can you tell your exposure is correct?
- 4. How do you focus the image?
- 5. How can you tell the image is in focus?
- 6. Identify your camera's shutter speed range. (Range Lowest to Highest)
- 7. Look at the aperture ring and identify the aperture range of your lens.
- 8. Turn the ASA dial. What is the film speed range?
- 9. Look at the distance scale on your lens.
 - a. At f2.8 what is the approximate depth of field when you focus 10 meters away?
 - b. At f22 what is the approximate depth of field when you focus 10 meters away?
- 10. What are some rules in caring for a the camera? (Worth 3 marks)